

Clean Energy Infrastructure, Environmental Justice, and the Ethics of NIMBY
Kiara Goodwine

Which of the worries expressed about Renewable Energy Systems and Harvest Wind Energy LLC's wind farms are motivated by NIMBY concerns and which are motivated by concerns for environmental justice?

Why is opposition to the Renewable Energy Systems wind farm not like opposition to Keystone XL or the Dakota Access Pipeline? Does opposition to the wind farm fit within the environmental justice movement?

How does NIMBY-ism overlap with the goals of environmental justice? Where does it diverge?
