

Midwest Ethics Symposium Schedule

All sessions will be held in the auditorium at The Prindle Institute for Ethics.

April 13

3:45-4:15 Shuttle Service to The Prindle Institute

4:00 - 4:45 Reception

4:45 Keynote Address

Emma Saunders-Hastings (Ohio State University) “Rethinking Dirty Money”

April 14

9:00-10:15

Speaker: Angela Barnes (Arizona State University) “Self-nudging and Consent for Paternalistic Behavioral Interventions”

Commentator: Eli Schantz (Indiana University)

10:30-11:45

Speaker: Joel Ballivian (University of Wisconsin, Madison) “Effective Altruism or Effective Reparations? EA's Strained Relationship with Reparative Justice”

Commentator: Cole James (Bowling Green State University)

12:00-1:00

Lunch at The Prindle Institute

1:00-2:15

Speaker: Ricky Mouser (Indiana University) “Mutual Aid is More Effective Altruism”

Commentator: Rich Cameron (DePauw University)

2:30-3:45

Speaker: Andrew Lynn (University of Virginia) “The Costs of Self-Rewarding Virtue: A Critical Assessment of the ‘Business Case’ for Socially Responsible Business”

Commentator: Toshiaki Hiromitsu (Japanese Embassy)

4:00-5:00 Undergraduate Session

Chair: Sara Das (DePauw University)

Speaker: Bodhi Hays (DePauw University) “Myth Over Method: Popular Criticism of Effective Altruism”

Commentator: Ellie Harris (DePauw University)

THE PRINDLE
INSTITUTE for Ethics